

Relationships Policy

Approved by the EREA Board 10 December 2013

- Rationale: Relationships are a key focus for schools, entities and all levels of governance of EREA. EREA must establish and nurture relationships within the contexts of Church, the Christian Brothers, Catholic education, the Edmund Rice Network, schools and the community.
- Principles: This policy is in accord with the EREA Charter and underpinned by EREA core values.
- Policy Statement: All groups within EREA: schools, entities and offices, will be proactive in fostering relationships in line with its mission and Charter.
- Key Responsibilities: All levels of governance in EREA will oversee processes for the development of quality relationships to ensure being proactive in the promotion and practice of effective communication.
- Review: Consideration will be given every 2 years to determine if this policy requires review earlier than 2017.
